

Create a Billboard

Use what you have learned, your knowledge of the time period, and any previous knowledge of history that you currently have to create a billboard.

The billboard will be from the perspective of a Native Texan and be directed to the Anglo Settlers. It can be helpful tip for living on the frontier or a warning sign telling them what will happen if the Anglos keep pressing west.

On the back reflect on the choices you made in creating your billboard and why you chose to the information you did.

To Do:

1. Decide what type of billboard you will create (informational or warning): _____ (20 points)
2. What information are you going to incorporate in your billboard: _____ (20 points)
3. Reflection in complete sentences and paragraph form, on the back of the billboard (60 points)
 - a. Why did you choose "this" to be on the billboard? Explain.
 - b. What did you like and dislike about this unit? Be specific regarding the content.
 - c. What did you learn that will stick with you the most?
 - d. What fort or city would you have displayed this billboard and why?
 - e. If you were a native leader during that time period, what would have done in response to the Anglos moving west? Thoroughly explain.

Create a Billboard

Use what you have learned, your knowledge of the time period, and any previous knowledge of history that you currently have to create a billboard.

The billboard will be from the perspective of a Native Texan and be directed to the Anglo Settlers. It can be helpful tip for living on the frontier or a warning sign telling them what will happen if the Anglos keep pressing west.

On the back reflect on the choices you made in creating your billboard and why you chose to the information you did.

To Do:

1. Decide what type of billboard you will create (informational or warning): _____ (20 points)
2. What information are you going to incorporate in your billboard: _____ (20 points)
3. Reflection in complete sentences and paragraph form, on the back of the billboard (60 points)
 - a. Why did you choose this to be on the billboard? Explain.
 - b. What did you like and dislike about this unit? Be specific regarding the content.
 - c. What did you learn that will stick with you the most?
 - d. What fort or city would you have displayed this billboard and why?
 - e. If you were a native leader during that time period, what would have done in response to the Anglos moving west? Thoroughly explain.