

Unit 5: Anglo American Colonization

Moses Austin traveled to _____ in 1820 to meet with the Spanish governor and propose to bring _____ American families to Texas. That plan was rejected, and Moses returned to Missouri.

A San Antonio businessman named _____ was sent to Missouri to let Moses Austin know that his request was now approved.

In _____, Moses Austin became the first man to gain permission from _____ to bring Anglo-American settlers to Texas.

Moses Austin is overcome with illness and pleads with his son, _____, "to carry out the 'Texas Venture.'"

Moses dies in June _____.

Austin charged _____ cents per acre. This was still 1/10th of what the land in the United States cost.

The fulfillment of conditions set by the _____ governor still had to be met. The settlers must have become _____, display good _____, and become citizens of their new country.

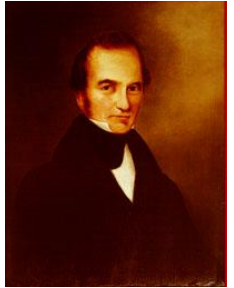

Austin traveled to _____ City to discuss the land agreements. He spends a _____ in Mexico City.

Permission is received in _____ to grant Austin a contract for his colony.

The first 300 families that were a part of Austin's colony are known as the "_____."

Most of the first settlers were _____.

Many of the _____ farmers had enslaved African Americans and brought them to Texas.

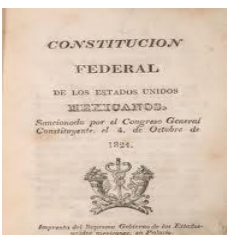

Austin's colony endured _____ by the Karankawa and Tonkawas. Austin's attempts to make peace with the NAs failed & Austin commanded a _____ against the Karankawas in 1824.

The _____ Era is the period in Texas history where Texas was a part of Mexico & the Mexican government attempted to control Texas.

A new Mexican government was formed by the _____ after Emperor Iturbide was overthrown.

The Constitution of _____ was created and divided Mexico into _____ states and 4 territories.

Two former Spanish provinces were combined to create _____ y _____.

Mexican Federal Constitution of _____

- Allowed each Mexican state to set its own _____ policies.
- Restricted new U.S. immigrants from establishing colonies near the borders or the coast.

The _____ Colonization Law of _____

- A family would receive 4,428 acres of land for $_____ and would not have to pay taxes for a set amount of time.
- Empresarios would receive 23,000 acres for every _____ colonists he settled in Texas.

Effects on Settlement in Texas

- Huge wave of _____, particularly U.S. immigration to Texas.
- Several new colonies established.

_____ received permission to settle _____ families next to Austin's original colony.

DeWitt's colony sustained numerous setbacks.

Mexico became concerned that Mexican culture was being _____ by the influence of so many outsiders from the _____.

Mexico passed the _____ of _____ 6, _____ which limited _____ from entering Texas.

Although the Law of April 6, 1830 slowed down DeWitt's colony from _____, the DeWitt colony and the creation of the city of Gonzales within the DeWitt colony make it one of the most successful.

_____ was a Mexican native that received a grant to establish a _____ colony in Texas.

This was the only colony in Texas that would be mainly settled by _____ families.

De Leon was a successful _____. His success helped found the cattle industry in Texas.

Other successful _____ brought immigrants from other countries, such as _____.

This played a role in creating the _____ cultures that Texas has.

Due to Stephen F. Austin's hard work, _____, leadership ability, and success, he is known as the "_____."

